On November 21, 1997, the Board was advised in a letter from David W. Sakamoto, counsel for the Department, that the Department has received a signed cancellation of the license in this matter, and deems the previously-filed appeal in this matter moot. The Department was thereafter requested to file a motion to dismiss the appeal on the ground of mootness, and has done so.

David W. Sakamoto appeared on behalf of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control at the regularly scheduled hearing of the Appeals Board on January 7, 1998. There was no appearance on behalf of appellant, and there has been no opposition filed against the Department's motion.

The Appeals Board has reviewed the documents filed in support of the motion, including an executed request that the license be canceled, has considered the representations of counsel with regard thereto, and is satisfied that the issues which were raised in the appeal of this matter have been rendered moot.

It is, therefore, ordered that this appeal be dismissed.
