v.

DEPARTMENT OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTROL,
Respondent

Administrative Law Judge at the Dept. Hearing: John P. McCarthy

Appeals Board Hearing: June 1, 2006
Los Angeles, CA

ISSUED OCTOBER 6, 2006

Mohamed Shawkat Harb, doing business as Harb Market (appellant), appeals from a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control¹ which suspended his license for 25 days for his clerk, Ana Alcaarez, having sold a 24-ounce can of Budweiser beer to Stephen Yasinovsky, an 18-year-old police minor decoy, a violation of Business and Professions Code section 25658, subdivision (a).

Appearances on appeal include appellant Mohamed Shawkat Harb, appearing through his counsel, Rick Blake, and the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, appearing through its counsel, John W. Lewis.

¹The decision of the Department, dated August 11, 2005, is set forth in the appendix.

FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Appellant's off-sale beer and wine license was issued on April 23, 2003. The Department thereafter instituted an accusation against appellant on February 17, 2005, charging the sale of an alcoholic beverage to a minor on December 17, 2004.

An administrative hearing was held on June 30, 2005, at which time oral and documentary evidence was received. Subsequent to the hearing, the Department issued its decision which determined that the charge of the accusation had been established, and the facts of the transaction did not warrant mitigation of the penalty. The violation was appellant's second within an eight-month period.

Written notice of the opportunity to file briefs in support of the appellant's position was given on February 28, 2006. No brief has been filed by appellant. We have reviewed the notice of appeal and have found insufficient assistance in that document which would aid in review.

The Appeals Board is not required to make an independent search of the record for error not pointed out by appellant. It was the duty of appellant to show to the Appeals Board that the claimed error existed. Without such assistance by appellant, the Appeals Board may deem the general contentions waived or abandoned.
