ORDER

Circle K Stores, Inc., doing business as Circle K Store (appellant), has appealed from a decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control<sup>1</sup> which suspended its license for 15 days, for its clerk, Ibrahim Gamal Mohamed, in violation of Business and Professions Code §25658, subdivision (a), having sold an alcoholic beverage (a 24-ounce can of Budweiser beer) to Roy Smallridge, then a 19-year-old minor participating in a decoy operation conducted by the San Bernardino Police Department.

The Department has stated in its reply brief that, based upon its review of the record and in light of the decision in Acapulco Restaurants, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (1998) 67 Cal.App.2d 575 [79 Cal.Rptr.2d 126], it elects not to contest or oppose the appeal.

We have conducted our own review of the record and are satisfied that the appeal has merit and that the decision of the Department must be reversed.
